Harford Community College practices an open-door policy of enrollment. Students are enrolled at the College without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, or any other characteristic protected by law. Admissions processes are documented in the Academic Catalog and maintained by the Director for Admissions. Some populations are required to submit additional documentation as part of the enrollment process. In order to be eligible for financial aid consideration, students must declare that they are seeking a degree or certificate and must hold a high school diploma or GED.
